

2014 ANGELI CUVÉE

This bright, lively wine is classic Zinfandel. Aromas of rhubarb and raspberry combine with white pepper and a touch of eucalyptus. Ripe, round tannins and a core of focused acidity create an elegant and full structure. Layers of dark cherry, dried lavender and minerality bring nuance to this exuberant wine.

Previous acclaim for Angeli Cuvée:

"The peppery, meaty, superb 2010 Angeli Cuvée is primarily a blend of Zinfandel, Petite Sirah, Carignan and cool climate Syrah. Its dense ruby/purple hue is followed by aromas of licorice, black currants and cherries intermixed with hints of camphor and spice. This is a full-bodied, opulent, mouth-filling, savory wine with not a hard edge to be found." 92 points
